Records and/or assumptions

- Lost track of Christiane after 1870 census,
- 1870 census Kate Trenkler believed to be Chatarine Trenkler age 36 who immigrated to Saint Louis, MO from Weimar, Germany via way of Bremen through New Orleans, LA. It also appears that she is the mother of Charles (although he is no longer in the home at time of census), Christiane 18 years old and Kate 13 years old.
- Could not find any record of Christiane's father with her in Saint Louis, however, her mother had a daughter (sister) Kate in 1856 or 1857. Cannot rule out that her mother may have been pregnant when she arrived in June 1855.
- June 12, 1855 SS Empire City's passenger list shows a Gabriel and Margareta Trenkler family. With other records and some assumptions we believe the following:
 - Option 1; Gabriel and Margareta Trenkler were husband and wife with;
 - Daughter Johannes age 25.
 - Son George age 21
 - Daughter Catharine age 18
 - Daughter in law Rosette Trenkler age 38.
 - Her daughter Christine age 10.
 - Daughter in law Chatarine (Catherine) age 36.
 - Her son Carl (Charles) age 11.

- Her daughter Christiane age 4
- Option 2; Gabriel and Margareta Trenkler were husband and wife with;
 - Daughter Johannes age 25.
 - Son George age 21
 - Daughter Catharine age 18
 - Sister in law Rosette Trenkler age 38.
 - Her daughter Christine age 10.
 - Sister in law Chatarine (Catherine) age 36.
 - Her son Carl (Charles) age 11.
 - Her daughter Christiane age 4
- Option 1 and 2 assumes that either Gabriel's brothers or older sons and went ahead of the family to find their new home in Saint Louis, MO. For this to be his sons, they would have had at least a 10 year span between these two that went ahead and the three that was with them.
